

The Semi-Weekly Bee's GREEN RIVER TRIP

Will leave Earlington in a special coach Thursday, August 13th and will spend the afternoon in Evansville at the Salt Pool and Picture Shows. Will leave Evansville on the Steamer Bowling Green at 5 o'clock and make the 200 mile trip up Green and Barren Rivers, arriving at Bowling at 6 o'clock Saturday morning. Will leave Bowling Green about noon Saturday and reach Evanville Sunday night in time to have the special coach put on train 93. A String Band will accompany the party and plenty of good music will be furnished. This will be a good trip to take your camera on as you will be able to make pictures of the various locks, Sally's rock and many other interesting objects. The cost of the entire trip from start to finish will be $12.50 and we guarantee an interesting and pleasant time. All who wish to take the trip with the contest winners may do so by sending in their name to this office

Dante and His Band Coming to Our Chautauqua

ONE of the big features of Chautauqua week here will be the appearance of Signor E. Forcelatti Dante and his band, each member of which is a real musician, well trained and with a keen appreciation of his art. Signor Dante, at the age of seven, was a student in the Conservatory of Naples and graduated from that college at the age of seventeen. Ten years later he began his work as a band leader. Signor Dante is also a great soloist, his skill with a trombone being widely commented upon by leading musicians. That Dante has a good band, strong in its individual features, is evidenced by the beauty and fineness of special solos. Extreme care is taken in the arrangement of Dante's programs. Popular music will be played, but special attention will be directed to classical pieces. Grand opera selections will be presented with brilliancy and power. At Venice, in Southern California, where from 80,000 to 100,000 people gather each Sunday to hear band music, Dante is a favorite, and at Denver also his concerts were enjoyed each afternoon and evening for weeks.

Chautauqua Week at Madisonville, Ky., June 30th to July 4th

Not All Superfluous.

A book critic says the modern reader does not like Dickens or Thackeray because they do not eliminate the superfluous. But they could have done so and had more left than many a modern novelist would if he should eliminate the superfluous.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Repairing Chair Seats.

When read or make chair seats sag, push them on both sides with warm hands. Make the under side quite wet, dry in the air and sun.

Natural Inclination.

"Do you think your nephew shows any predilection for a useful pursuit?" asked the serious relative. "Well," replied Mr. Groucher, "judging by the way he tries to keep his face and hands and clothes, I think he would enjoy being a chimney sweep."

Melting the Heart of Anger.

Is thy friend angry with thee? Then provide him an opportunity of showing thee a great favor. Over that his heart must needs melt, and he will love thee again.—Richter.

Cellar Champion.

A seven-year-old boy, coming from school one day, informed his mother that half his class had been promoted. His mother asked him whether he had been one of the number. "No," said he, "and I'm glad I'm not, 'cause I'm the smartest one left."

Can Learn From the Mule.

De Lawd made de mule ter give us a example of stubbornness; likewise ter show us how foolish it is ter be allus kickin' because you happen ter have de heels.—Atlanta Constitution.

Too Much to Ask.

Mrs. Henrypeck (looking up from her reading).—"This writer says that the widows make the best wives." Mr. Henrypeck—"But, really, my dear, you can hardly expect me to do just in order to make a good wife of you."—Stray Stories.

Daily Thought.

The greatest part of what we say or do being unnecessary, if a man takes this away he will have more leisure and less uneasiness.—Marcus Aurelius.
